

I do not want to be telemarketed by any business. My phone would ring sometimes five times a night with people pitching things at me. After telling them I had no interest the pests would call back again and again.

Leave the Wisconsin Consumer Protections no call list alone.